5th /6th May 2026

Conference President:

Dr. Wafa BERKAT

Scope of the Conference

English literature is an important teaching unit in educational institutions and it is considered as one of the compulsory subjects to be taught especially at the higher educational context. This academic event attempts to provide teachers of English language, in general, and teachers of literature, in particular and specific, with a general overview of the different approaches, literary materials and the classroom that can be implemented and effectively used in English literature classes for EFL- English Foreign Learners. Teachers in charge of the teaching and the didactics of English literature find usually dealing with literature a complex procedure and task which might be mediated by different personal and contextual factors including teacher training, experience, curriculum, availability of resources and others. The latter would create challenges that can be categorised into three: student-related challenges, teacher-related challenges, and external-related challenges that may reports the key gap and limitations in the teaching and learning of English literature.

This national conference aims to explore EFL literature classes in the Algerian higher educational context, its challenges for teachers and its needs for learners. It serves as the best venue for addressing issues in teaching literature in an Algerian higher education environment, it aims also to highlight the pedagogies and approaches implemented, the practices observed, and the challenges, positive or negative, that both teachers and learners have experienced. It seeks also to highlight and support the potential of EFL teachers and learners in literary subject matters through innovative strategies. The end of this event hopes to deduce and conclude down with useful insights and recommendations for a better literature teaching/ learning.
